PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The AGR-43 is the latest addition to our line of pistol grips featuring multi-textured rubber, enhancing your grip experience. Incorporated into its design, is the superior contour of its predecessor, adding even more comfort and proper ventilation needed in extreme heat and moist environments, giving you the edge you need in the field or at the range.

Advantages:

MIL-SPEC reinforced polymer composite with multi-textured rubber overmold superior coating

Three different overmold rubber textures; rib studded at palm, alligator pattern for front fingers and moon surface textured sides

Multi texture rubber provides superior ventilation, prevents slip and reduces sweaty palms

Finger grooves and backstrap shape for enhanced, more comfortable grip

Extended beavertail for better control, allowing a higher firmer hold

Readily accessible storage area with securely sealed hinged door

Available in black, olive drab green or flat dark earth

Compatibility:

M-16 / SR-25 / AR-15 variants
